

Southern Oregon Sports Commission, Travel Medford announce national syndication of Know Your Role™ marketing campaign by licensing to USA Softball

MEDFORD, Ore. (July 18, 2022) – The Southern Oregon Sports Commission and Travel Medford partnered to nationally syndicate the Know Your Role™ marketing campaign aimed at correcting poor behavior toward sports officials by licensing it to USA Softball through 2025.

The trademarked pledge: “You can be an athlete, a coach, a parent or an official, but you only get to be one – Know Your Role” was created by the Southern Oregon Sports Commission (SOSC) in 2016 and the campaign was developed in partnership with Travel Medford. The campaign addresses the growing epidemic of inappropriate behavior toward sports officials and aims to correct the issue through a series of positive messages and continued reminders that participant safety, enjoyment, growth, and development are the most important aspects of sports.

“We are thrilled for a prestigious organization like USA Softball to carry a cohesive message nationwide that originated in the Rogue Valley and bring awareness to a growing issue in communities that’s causing a decline in participation in youth sports,” said Angela Wood, Director of Sports Development for Travel Medford who oversees and manages the Southern Oregon Sports Commission.

USA Softball is the national governing body of softball in the U.S. with more than 120,000 teams and 2 million members across 50 states. The Know Your Role™ campaign aligns with the organization’s values of sportsmanship and civility and USA Softball will implement the campaign for the next three years in effort of improving the game across all levels.

“Partnering with Know Your Role is another step in USA Softball’s commitment to the growth and development of grassroots softball,” said USA Softball Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Craig Cress. “As the National Governing Body of Softball in the U.S., we are dedicated to providing the softball community with educational tools and content that ensures an enjoyable and safe environment. This partnership with Know Your Role will allow coaches, umpires, athletes and fans to gain a better understanding of what their roles are in the sport, which will play a key role in enhancing the overall experience for everyone involved.”

The Know Your Role™ campaign is currently being implemented by schools, sports associations, and city organizations throughout Southern Oregon. It is also syndicated statewide through the Oregon Youth Soccer Association’s 48,000-member organization, which was the first association to officially license the campaign starting July 1.

SOSC invites others to join the movement by pledging to “Know Your Role™” and cultivate a safe environment for youth athletes and officials.
